

GREAT BATTLES OPEN THE SPRING CAMPAIGN

By Associated Press.
London, March 17.—Petrograd believes that the opening of the spring campaign is at hand along the 600-mile eastern front. Not since the war began has there been such continuous fighting.

The official German communication shows that in the extreme north the Russians are again on the Prussian border. The report mentioned a Russian attack on a small town which is on German soil.

London, March 17.—Neuve Chapelle and St. Eloi on the west, Przemyśl and Przemyśl on the east, are the pivots of the battle areas.

The outcome of the fight for Neuve Chapelle should prove, British observers say, whether the Germans can retrieve ground lost by them, with the same battling tactics they displayed last year.

The outcome at Przemyśl will demonstrate whether Von Hindenburg again has failed, and virtually nullified all his costly efforts to reach Warsaw.

To the south the Austrians are attempting a dash to relieve Przemyśl. In the meantime, the Russians are closing around that fortress.

London has no confirmation of a report that the British cruiser Amethyst has penetrated the narrows of the Dardanelles as far as Nagara.

A Petrograd dispatch says that the capture of the Austrian fortress at Przemyśl is considered, in the Russian capital, as a matter of a few days only. Austrian prisoners say the garrison is existing on famine rations.

London, March 17.—The Central News publishes a dispatch from Athens which says the Vali of Smyrna went on board the British flagship after the bombardment of that Turkish port, and held a conference with the British commander, during which the shelling was suspended.

No agreement was reached and the Vali on landing gave out a proclamation saying he would resist to the end.

South Shields, England, March 17.—The British steamship Blonde reported that she was attacked in the North Sea by a German aeroplane, which dropped a bomb on her deck, killing one member of the crew.

Champaign, Ills., March 17.—Fire threatening the destruction of a large section of Champaign's business district within an hour after its discovery today, had destroyed the Morrison building, in which it started, with a loss estimated at $500,000.

A high wind caused the flames to spread.

Firemen from nearby towns aided the local department.

JAP PREMIER INTERVIEWED

By Associated Press.
Tokyo, March 17.—A published interview with Premier Count Okuma, quotes him as saying that Germany was instigating China against Japan, but that the result would be futile; that if Russia gained Constantinople she would abandon her ideas of gaining an outlet in the Orient, and that relations between the United States and Japan were becoming very friendly and at present were especially good.

LITTLE CONCERN SHOWN BY ACCUSED

The three Denvers, confined in the county jail, accused of the murder of John Bainter, are taking their confinement with very little show of concern over their imprisonment or the final outcome of the grave charge which they face.

All have good appetites and talk freely but refrain from discussing the murder of Bainter.

Never before in the history of the Fayette County jail has the prison at one time contained four persons accused of murder.

MAY PROBE ALLEGED LOBBY ACTIVITIES

By Associated Press.
Columbus, March 17.—Stirred by the charges and counter charges concerning alleged activities of lobbyists in Columbus, Speaker Conover announced today that he would insist that the matter be investigated by a special committee in the House.

The Speaker indicated that he does not give much credence to the reports of lobbying but told House leaders it was his firm belief that the house owed it to its membership to make a thorough investigation. It became known today that Governor Willis is much exercised by reports of improper activity of lobbyists and legislators. He called a number of representatives and senators into his office and urged them strongly against any conduct which might encourage continuance of such charges.

New York, March 17.—More than 15,000 men planned to take part in the St. Patrick's Day parade here today. COUPLE ENTERS SUICIDE PACT

Reading, Pa., March 17.—Because they wished "to make of their bodies a living sacrifice to the Lord," literally following the Scriptures, two Joanna residents, man and wife, committed suicide together at their home. They were Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Seifers, 42 and 46 years old, the former a prosperous farmer. Both were devoutly religious, and the only cry advanced as the cause for their act is that they were mentally unbalanced by a too literal interpretation of Biblical lessons. They were found hanging by their two sons. Ordinary hempen rope was fastened to a rafter, one end around the neck of the husband and one around that of his wife.

VILLA MOVING TOWARD TAMPICO

El Paso, Tex., March 17.—Advices received in Juarez state that General Villa is busy dispatching his army to the southward in his campaign against Victoria and Tampico. The movement of Villa troops towards the seacoast is regarded by the confident Villistas here as the beginning of the end of the Carranza movement. The final attempt of Carranza to recapture Monterey failed, and according to Villa advices General Pablo is withdrawing his forces toward Victoria. British Vice Consul Myles was advised that General Villa had rescinded his order for contributions from foreigners following the capture of Guadalupe. The 3,000,000 pesos demanded will now have to be supplied by the natives alone.

MODIFIED FORM OF BLOCKADE

Great Britain's Explanation of Her Newest Policy.

ISOLATION OF GERMANY SOUGHT

Latest Note Not Only Contains Rejection of the American Joint Proposals, but Also Answers Washington's Inquiries as to What May Be Expected Under the New Order. Wilson Expected to Enter Protest.

Washington, March 17.—In explanation and defense of her extraordinary program of cutting off all trade with Germany, Great Britain asks that the United States view this procedure as a modified form of blockade.

A formal statement regarding the new policy, which the British already know is certain to be sharply objected to by the United States, was received here as a note accompanying the copy of the orders in council handed to Ambassador Page. This note not only contains a rejection of the American joint proposals to Great Britain and Germany suggesting a modification of their maritime policies, but also answers the United States inquiries as to what may be expected under the new orders by which the allies have announced their intention to prevent all trade with Germany.

The British government asked that its communication on these two subjects be withheld from the public by the United States government until tomorrow morning, when they will be also published in Great Britain. The American notes, the one suggesting that Great Britain pass foodstuffs for the civil population of Germany in return for a modification of Germany's submarine operations, and the later note of inquiry regarding the new policy will be given out at the same time.

Though the British response to these communications was carefully guarded at the state department, it may be said authoritatively that the burden of the British statement regarding the new policy is that the operation should be regarded by neutrals as something less than a blockade and therefore less damaging to neutral interests than the more familiar blockade proper.

The explanation on the part of the British government has in no way shaken the intention of the administration to lodge as vigorous protest as is possible against the allies' procedure in seeking to strangle all trade with Germany. The president's callers left the White House firmly convinced that Mr. Wilson feels very strongly on this issue, but the president himself declined to make any comment on the subject at this time. It was declared in other quarters, however, that the United States would assert itself as vigorously as possible in defense of what are regarded as its rights.

The British orders in council are held to outline a mode of procedure wholly unauthorized by any principles in international law and unlike anything ever before attempted. While it is generally conceded that the United States is not in a position nor of the mind to bring to bear upon Great Britain, France and Russia the only kind of pressure which might effect modification of their policy, yet this government, it is asserted, will not remain silent in the face of what is regarded as a flagrant violation of its rights. It is proposed at least to establish grounds on which claims for damages may probably rest.

ATTENTION! FRESHMAN OF FORMER YEARS

The annual Freshman Bazaar will be held in the High school building Thursday and Friday of this week.

For fourteen years the Freshmen have sold home-made candy and with the proceeds have purchased a number of beautiful pieces of art for the decoration of the school walls. It has been said that there is only one High school building in the state whose art display surpasses that of the Washington High school.

It is the purpose of this year's class to complete the Frieze of the Parthenon, which the two previous Freshmen classes have already begun to place upon the Assembly walls. The present class calls the attention of former Freshmen especially those who have in past years worked in the Freshmen Bazaar, to patronize this candy sale.

Come to the Bazaar if you can; if this is not possible, order candy from a member of this year's class.

ALIENS WOULD CLEAR OUT OF MEXICO CITY

Bryan Undertakes to Arrange For Their Transportation.

Washington, March 17.—In response to notifications from Americans and other foreigners in Mexico City that they desire to leave Mexico City, Secretary Bryan undertook to arrange jointly with Zapata and Carranza for their transportation to Vera Cruz. This is the first united effort on the part of the foreigners to leave Mexico City, and it presents to the United States the task of making it possible for them to get out.

Advices to the state department were that there is now no train service between Mexico City and Vera Cruz. Carranza holds the Vera Cruz end of the line and Zapata the Mexico City end. Officials here have given up hope of securing co-operation between the two opposing forces for joint operation of the road for the purpose of bringing food supplies into the capital, and it is much doubted here if such arrangement can be made even for getting foreigners out of Mexico. In the event of failure of Mr. Bryan's attempts in this direction this government will have to choose between bringing coercive pressure to bear on both Carranza and Zapata or admitting its inability even to aid Americans to obey its warning to get out of Mexico. The chief basis of hope lies in Villa's promise to open the northern route to Mexico as soon as possible.

EFFORTS OF COAL COMMISSION FUTILE

Washington, March 17.—The Colorado coal commission, of which Seth Low is chairman, appointed by President Wilson to attempt to bring about better relations between the mine operators and miners in Colorado, reported to the president that they had been unable thus far to accomplish any definite reforms. The commission recommended that its proposed visit to the state for the purpose of treating with the different parties to the recent strike controversy be postponed until the autumn. The report informs President Wilson that seventy-one of the mine operators in Colorado, producing 61 per cent of all the coal produced in the state, have expressed the opinion that no useful purpose would be served by the commission going to Colorado at this time.

CRUISER MAKES DARING DASH

Salonica, March 17.—The British light cruiser Amethyst made a dash into the straits, notwithstanding the mines and the gunfire from the forts, and penetrated nearly to Nagara, the narrowest point, when she was hit by twenty-two shells. Twenty-eight of her crew were killed and thirty wounded. Notwithstanding the fact that three of the shells penetrated below the water line and she was making water rapidly, the Amethyst succeeded in getting back to the fleet, and anchored near the Tenedos lighthouse. The object of the exploit is not known. The adventures of the Amethyst occurred after the allied fleet had discovered that mobile Turkish batteries were taking positions in the neighborhood of Kum Kale and the Gulf of Saros, with a view of preventing the allies from making a landing. The fleet bombarded the position for three hours and apparently reduced the batteries to silence. Immediately after this had been accomplished the Amethyst darted ahead.

FRENCH OCCUPY CRATER OF MINE

Paris, March 17.—The latest official communique reads: "During the night of March 15-16 the enemy attempted to retake the trenches which he had lost on the spur of Notre Dame de Lorette. He was repulsed and we made several prisoners. In Champagne, in the region of Perthes, we exploded a mine chamber. We have occupied the mine crater, around which a very lively fight followed. We held this point. Some progress has been made north of Beauséjour. In the Argonne, during the night of March 15-16, the Germans made several counter attacks against Lefour de Paris and Bolante, as well as at Vanquois. They were all repulsed. A Legislator's Ugly Charges

If the statements made by Representative Deaton, of Miami county, are true then the grand old Buckeye State is either now due for or perilously near to an era of unpleasant and sensational investigations in officialdom.

Mr. Deaton stated on Monday, commenting upon a motion for a legislative investigation, which he was urging: "There is a larger bunch of trained lobbyists here this year than I ever saw before. Many are not registered, and they are spending money lavishly on members of the assembly who do not know better than to accept entertainment."

That's strong language to use and, coming from a member of the legislative body of the state it is entitled to receive the serious consideration of the assembly and the people of Ohio. If conditions are as bad as Mr. Deaton says they are then his demand for an investigation should be complied with and the sooner it is done the better it will be for all concerned.

The people of Ohio hope that conditions are not as bad as Mr. Deaton pictures them in his sensational utterances. Indeed they hope that there is no basis at all, in fact, for the statements made.

Only a few years ago Ohio passed through the unpleasant experience of legislative scandals but the result of the investigations then made, the exposures which followed in its wake and the punishment meted out to guilty legislators had a wholesome effect.

The last general assembly was absolutely above suspicion of wrong doing and although a vast amount of work was done affecting vitally large interests no charges of corruption, accomplished or attempted, were made.

The high standard of morality which the people credited to the last general assembly was largely contributed to by the literal enforcement of the anti-lobby laws.

It must be presumed, until the contrary is proven conclusively, that there has been no actual crime committed by any member of the assembly but it is impossible to keep down suspicion and ugly charges when the known representatives of vicious interests are allowed to keep in touch with legislators and when some legislators are so indiscrete as to accept favors at the hands of those whom, a proper regard for one's official reputation demands, should be shunned.

The bars against the lobbyists cannot long be allowed to remain down without actual crime resulting and the barriers which bar the lobbyists from association with legislators cannot be let down at all without creating a suspicion in the minds of the people of the state which is absolutely destructive of the good which the legislature should accomplish.

The charges made by Mr. Deaton demand action and the assembly should, by a rigid investigation, clear itself of the suspicion which attaches to it or if that suspicion is well founded, purify itself by the expulsion and punishment of any guilty members.

Above all the professional—the known and notorious lobbyists—now hovering about the assembly halls, to prey upon the people's rights, should be driven away and kept away.

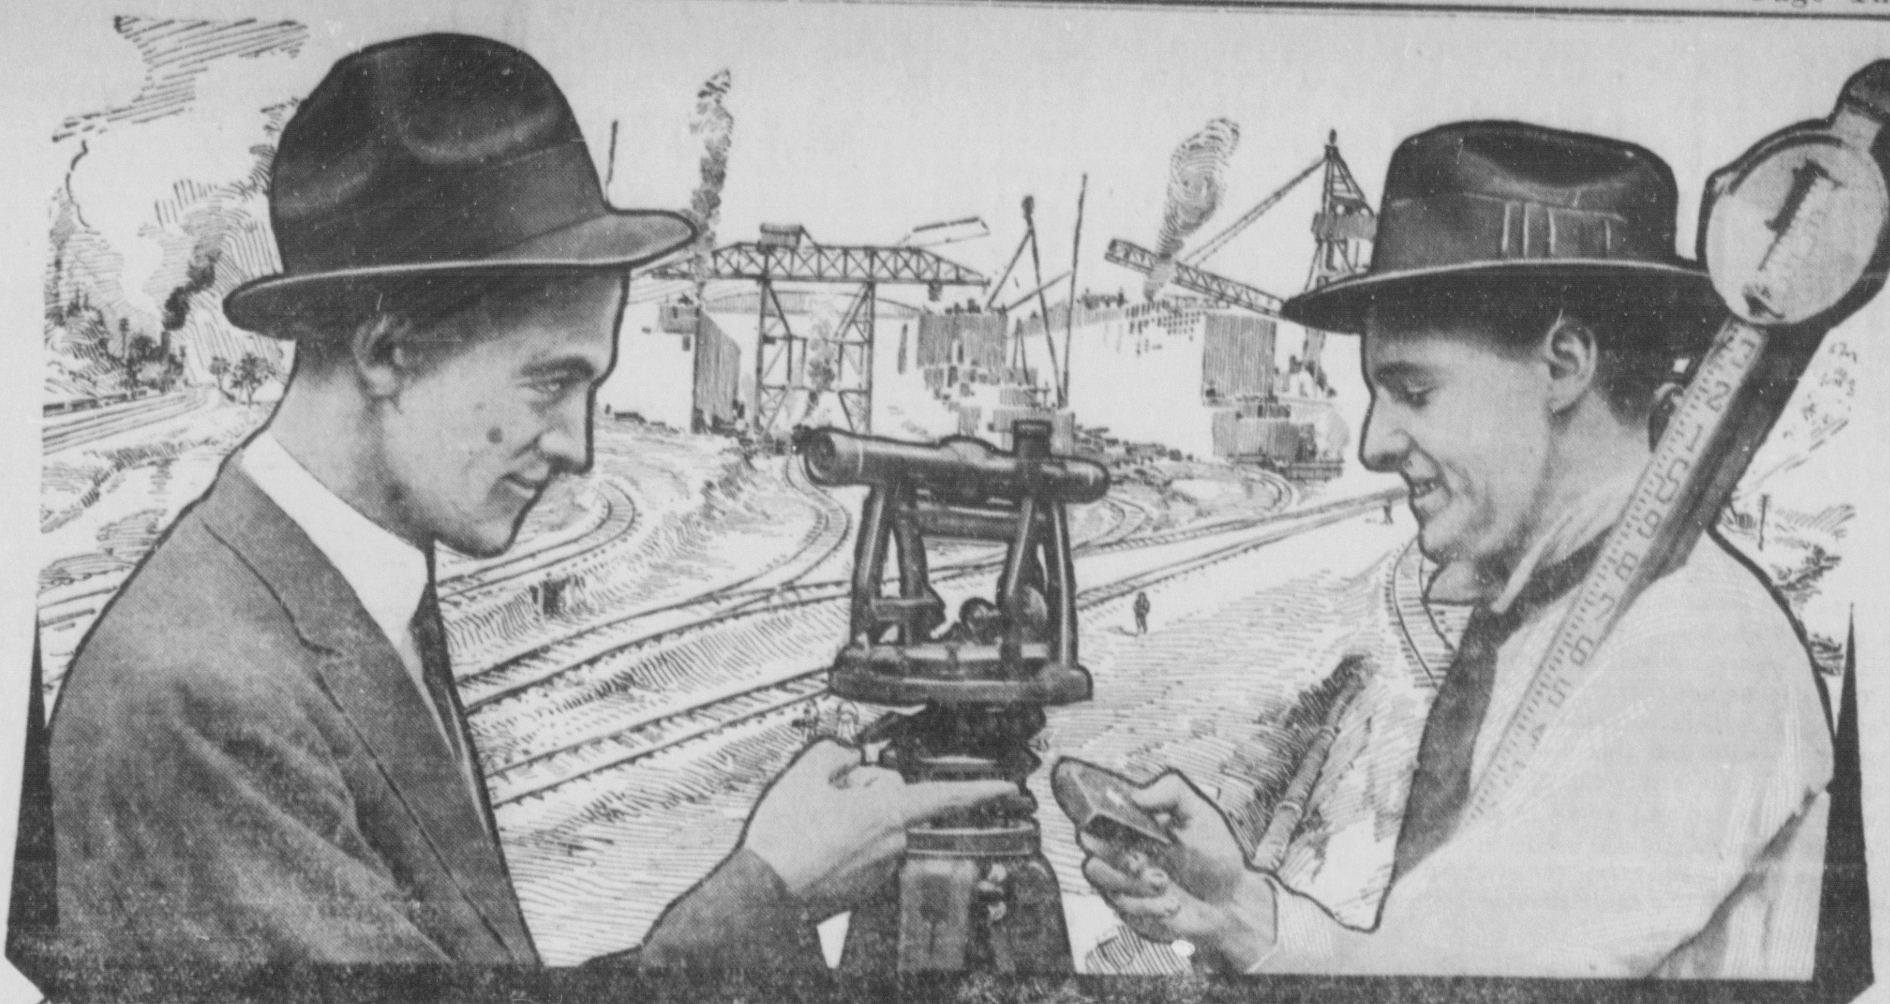

That would do more to restore and hold the confidence of the people in the assembly than anything else.

The exposure of graft and grafters would do no good, at least so far as restoring confidence is concerned, unless the lobbyists are driven away.

Those who feared that the lobbyists were coming back have, unfortunately, seen their fears justified.

Let us hope that those who feared that the days of corruption in the legislature would return are to be happily disappointed.

In any event action—prompt, decisive and affirmative action—is necessary.

THE MAN THE DESERT GOT.

He rests, half buried in the drift
Of waterless and silent strands;
His fingers clutch a mocking gift—
The worthless, wind blown desert
sands;
He thought to close his hands upon
A heavier and yellow prize,
But now his lusts for gold have gone
Shriveled beneath those blazing skies.

The lizard flits about his form,
The buzzards circle in the height;
If there be mercy in yon storm
May he be covered deep ere night;
And may the rippling sands smooth o'er
Upon the desert's face the spot
Where ends his quest forevermore,
The quest of him the desert got.

The trails to distant water holes
His plodding feet shall ne'er retrace,
For unto still more distant goals
The prospector has turned his face;
These shifting sand hills lose their glow,
The breeze no more is furnace hot,
And when the storm ends none shall know
Where rests the man the desert got!

GERMAN CRUISER DESTROYED IN CHILEAN WATERS

Washington, March 17.—That the German cruiser Dresden was attacked and destroyed by British warships within the territorial waters of Chile, near Juan Fernandez Island, and that Chilean neutrality has been thus violated, was charged in a statement issued at the German embassy here.

The statement, in part, reads:

"According to the British admiralty report the Dresden was caught by the armored cruiser Kent, the protected cruiser Glasgow and the auxiliary cruiser Orama near Juan Fernandez Island. Considering the existing conditions, the Dresden apparently has been attacked while in the shelter of neutral waters. As long as no other news is received to prove the contrary, we are entitled to believe that a second violation of neutrality in waging naval warfare has been committed by the English navy. On Aug. 26, 1914, H. M. auxiliary cruiser, Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, was fired upon in the Bay of Rio de Oro by the English cruiser Highflyer, while at anchor within one mile of the Spanish coast of West Africa."

ACCUSES MAYO

New Haven, Conn., March 17.—Miss Susanna Wahlers brought suit for $15,000 damages against Virgilus Mayo, president of the Mayo Radiator company, charging that Mayo assaulted her on April 16, 1912, in the factory of the Mayo company. This suit follows the filing of another one in which Miss Wahlers seeks to obtain support for her child, of which she alleges Mayo is the father.

LIST OF THE ASSESSORS WHO WILL LIST FAYETTE PROPERTY

District Assessor J. C. Dunn, acting under instructions from the State Tax Commission, has been going forward with the work of preparing for the annual tax listing, which will begin Monday, April 5th, and be conducted by the same assessors as last year with the exception of some who have resigned, moved away or were provisional appointees.

The list of assessors is now complete, and within a short time the men who will list the property in Fayette county will meet and agree upon valuations and begin work on the day named.

Vacancies filled from the list of eligibles under the Civil Service law are as follows:

Green township—Joseph M. Coffey, taking the place of W. H. Blair, who has moved out of the county.

Jasper township—George L. Gray, supplanting Howard Smith, who also has moved out of the county.

Paint township—David Long, filling a vacancy caused by the resignation of I. N. Hanna.

Wayne township—A. J. Kearney, supplanting Matthew Gilmer, who was a provisional appointee, Mr. Kearney last year being the only eligible from Wayne township, but was named on the Board of Complaints, later resigning from that.

The other assessors, who will list the property in their respective districts, are:

Washington C. H.—1st ward, W. A. DeWitt; 2nd ward, Chas. M. Griffith; 3rd ward, T. J. Lindsey; 4th ward Os Scott.

Union township—Joe H. Hughes.

Perry township—Ralph Barrett.

Marion township—Chas. Nelson.

Madison township—B. H. Vance.

Jefferson township—Geo. Blessing.

Concord—Chas. Sheridan.

Under the bill now pending in the Ohio Legislature, the office of District Assessors is abolished, and their work falls upon the county auditors.

The bill has not yet been passed.

ROOF IS BURNED FROM RESIDENCE

Fire which had gained considerable headway when discovered, burned most of the roof from the home of O. E. Dowden, formerly the home of Judge Carpenter, on Washington avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

The fire started in the attic and, whipped by a strong breeze, had spread to other parts of the roof and was burning furiously when the fire department arrived, after prompt response and a splendid run.

In addition to burning nearly all of the roof off, the upper part of the house was badly damaged by the fire and water, and some of the household goods, which could not be removed, suffered damage.

The total loss to Mr. Dowden it is estimated, will reach $250 to $400.

OAK BOWLERS DEFEAT OPPONENTS

The Oak bowling team defeated Kelhofer's five Tuesday night before an interesting audience at the latter's alleys, and thereby claim the city championship after a hard fought battle, in which several high scores were made.

On Friday of last week the two teams met at the alleys of the Oak pool room, the Oaks finishing the three games with a lead of 201 over their opponents; Tuesday evening's bowling was featured by the remarkable work of Runnels and Waits of the Oak five, while Kelhofer was the star on the other side. At the end of the first game Tuesday evening the Oaks had rolled up a lead of 395, and this made it difficult for their opponents to overcome; however, the two remaining games resulted in victories for Kelhofer's team, and at the close the count showed that the Oaks were victorious by a score of 231.

The lineup was as follows: Oaks—Runnels, Waits, Merz, Noon and Whited; Kelhofers—Himmler, Murphy, Melvin, Kelhofer and Pine.

The oak team announces that they will meet any five man team in the city for six games.

WILL ENDEAVOR TO VOTE XENIA DRY

With over two hundred men in attendance, the newly organized Citizen's League met at Trinity church Monday night and voted to hold a Beal Law election with the hope of voting Xenia dry. As soon as possible was the time named for the election.

With Earl Eavey as chairman, L. T. Marshall as secretary and Prof. Sampson as treasurer, a committee was named to take charge of the work. They were empowered to appoint all committees necessary to assist in the campaign work. Petitions will be drawn up and circulated for signatures as soon as possible.

Rev. H. J. Jewett acted as chairman of the meeting with Herbert Davis as secretary. Following a few addresses which followed the ousting of the saloons a vote was taken and it was unanimously decided to hold the Beal election.

Action against certain prospective saloonists was also taken and a committee was appointed to obtain blanks and file protests against the granting of a saloon license to certain applicants.—Xenia Gazette.

What promises to be a popular series of lessons, and one which will appeal to every member of the class, will be taken up by the teacher, Rev. F. E. Ross, in the Men's Bible Class at Grace church, next Sunday morning.

The theme of the first lesson, or address, will be "How We Got Our Bible." The series will cover the Old Testament thoroughly, and a big increase in the class attendance is anticipated.

HERE'S CHANCE FOR BOYS WHO CAN'T SWIM

BOYS! CLIP THIS COUPON!

This coupon, when presented at the Y. M. C. A. will entitle any boy, between 10 and 18 years of age, whether a member or not, to take the first free swimming lesson to be given at the Y. M. C. A. Monday morning. There will be three lessons in all—Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. Coupons for the Wednesday and Friday lessons will appear in the Daily Herald of Tuesday and Thursday.

Name
(Sign your full name here)

Age Street or P. O.

With the first bright days of spring the youngster begins to wonder, among other things, how the ol' swimmin' hole is coming along; whether the winter's currents have made it any deeper or shallower than last year, and if that strip of sandy bottom is still there. He looks forward with a keener anticipation to this feature of his summer's sport than any other, and he begins to count the days until school is out.

This is the boy that has learned to swim, and can dive and tread water like other boys, and can bring up a handfull of sand or mud from any reasonable depth by the simple expedient of diving for bottom, and whether his activities in that line be carried out in a tidy titled natatorium or in a muddy little hole under a big oak tree in Old What's-His-Name's creek, the fact that it is paramount issue remains.

The boy who cannot swim gives the matter no less serious consideration, but it is a consideration born of regret rather than of pleasure.

There is no real good reason why a boy should not know how to swim and even if he should not care to know, which is improbable, he owes it to himself to at least learn, for the time may come when his knowledge will stand him well in hand.

For the benefit of those boys who do not know how to swim and would like to learn the Y. M. C. A. will give free lessons at the Y. M. C. A. tank next week, at which all boys between the ages of 10 and 18 years whether members of the Association or not, will be instructed.

As next week is spring vacation week in the schools every youngster in town who cannot swim will be given an opportunity to learn. The instructions will be given from 10 to 11 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings.

All that is necessary to join these classes is to present the coupon shown above to Physical Director McClung before each lesson. By Mr. McClung's method these three lessons are sufficient for any one to learn to swim.

Since the Y. M. C. A. has been located in Washington more than a thousand persons, mostly boys, have become swimmers through its instructions.

USE THE ROAD DRAG

There exists a prevailing opinion in the minds of those who have used the King road drag that the persistent use of this simple drag will do the ordinary earth roads more good for the amount of time and labor required than any other method of working ever proposed. Some of the best earth roads in Ohio have been made good by the use of this simple implement.

In fact, some advocates of the drag claim that the trustees of many townships could well afford to sell the heavy road machines to a junk man and invest the proceeds in a number of split-log drags. Spasmodic use of the split-log or similar drag or the like use of any road-working implement, will not make bad roads good. The drag is light and easily handled and should be used as soon after each rain as the condition of the surface will permit. The job is quickly finished and the results are surprising where the dragging is carried on throughout the year.

Possibly the most marked improvement from the use of the road drag will result from the early spring dragging.

Practically all farm papers have described the King, or split-log drag. However, if you are not acquainted with this simple implement and can-

ANNA MORGAN

In Social Circles

Pretty and tasteful in its appointments was the six o'clock St. Patrick's dinner given Tuesday evening in the hall of the church, by the young ladies society of St. Colman's church.

Green shaded candles in crystal candlesticks and green crepe paper baskets adorned each of the two long tables at which the guests were seated.

The color scheme was carried out in the courses of the delicious dinner served. The favors consisted of green hats and shamrocks.

After the dinner followed a business meeting and social hour.

Mrs. Alex H. Ballard enjoyably entertained the women of the Episcopalian Guild at their fortnightly Kensington Wednesday afternoon.

The most notable event in the social world last week was the dance Friday evening given by Mr. Raymond M. Cheseldine, at the Patriarch pavilion. It might also be stated that it was one of the prettiest affairs ever held at the pavilion. The guest were welcomed by the host, his mother, Mrs. Charles Cheseldine; Miss Dorothy Canfield, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. Harry Brown and Mr. B. E. Garver, of Columbus. The pavilion was artistically decorated for the occasion, white and green being the color scheme. Strains of the music pealed forth from behind a screen made of white crepe paper, forming a lattice intertwined with green vines. The space between the dining room and the ball room was carried out in the same effect. These colors used were appropriate of St. Patrick's Day. The ice cream served also bore an emblem in the shape of a shamrock. A delightful three-supper was beautifully served at small tables in the dining room.

Mr. Maynard Craig and Mr. Winchell Craig, of Washington C. H., were among the 300 guests present.—London Enterprise.

The Loyal Daughters of the church of Christ enjoyed the regular monthly meeting with Miss Stella McCall Tuesday evening.

Twenty young women were present and a social hour, with refreshments followed the social hour.

The Art Department of the Browning Club, Miss Jean Howat chairman, again presented a program out of the ordinary and most attractive at Tuesday night's meeting, held in the High school assembly room.

Through the kindness of Mr. John Patterson of Dayton, a series of fine stereopticon pictures, taken while on his trips abroad, were shown in illustration of papers on China and Italy.

Mrs. Lena Probasco explained the pictures of China in a very interesting way; touching at length upon Peking, the "dirtiest and worst smelling city in the world," and the contrasting city of Hong Kong, said to be the cleanest city, comparing favorably with the well kept old Roman cities; upon the Chinese temples and the tombs of the different dynasties surmounted with huge animals carved in stone.

One of the finest pictures shown was that of the great wall of Peking, winding like a snake over the mountains around the big city.

Mrs. Probasco's statement that if all the people of the world were lined up every fourth person would be a Chinese, impressed her listeners.

Miss Haidee VanWinkle presented, in her own exceptionally charming and brilliant fashion, the pictures from Italy, prefacing them with a beautiful paper on "The Life of Browning and his Wife in Florence."

It was a fascinating study, the life of these married lovers amid the picturesque setting of Florence, as depicted by Miss Van Winkle and made doubly real by the scenes thrown upon the canvas.

The wonderful cathedral and buildings of Florence, the fine sculpture and famous paintings were well covered in the series of pictures.

The artist "Andrea Del Sarto," said to have been the finest colorist of the Florentine school, afforded the subject for a most delightful paper by Mrs. Louise Bowman.

Mrs. Bowman's pleasing delivery added to the interest of the paper.

Following the papers there were two Graphanola numbers, the "Street Songs in Venice" especially beautiful and in harmony with the program.

The club women extended a vote of thanks to Mr. Patterson and to all who assisted in the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. H. L. Stitt filled the role of hostess to the Cecilia's Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. G. S. Hodson opened the program with an interesting "Courier Review;" Mrs. Charles F. Ballard following with a synopsis of the Children's Symphony chorus.

The musical numbers were charming. Mrs. Morna Chapman played McDowell's "Shadow Dance;" Mr. Kneisley and Miss Mazie Kessler a violin duet, "Spring's Awakening;" Charles Bohn; Miss Edith Gardner sang (a) Memories—Edward German (b) The Years at the Spring—Clara Kathleen Rodgers (c) When I Do Wrong.

Miss Janet Stutson entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club at an extremely pretty St. Patrick's Day affair, Tuesday afternoon. The favors were new conceits of the popular day and the delicious collation, which followed the game, introduced the green color scheme effectively.

Miss Mary Geiger, of Troy, was an out of town guest.

HUGE CLASSES OF MEN AROUSE GREAT INTEREST

Local Men's Bible classes will be deeply interested in knowing the attendance of the moster classes at Lancaster, Athens and Nelsonville, the three above classes rivaling in interest and attendance.

The Lancaster class, of the First M. E. church of that city, had an attendance Sunday of 1917 men, and all classes in the church had a total enrollment of 1772, the largest number ever assembling in the church at one time for the study of the Scriptures.

The attendance of the Copeland class, of Athens was 993 while the previous Sunday the number was 933. Nelsonville had just 226 present last Sunday, which is a marked falling off in the usual attendance.

In this city last Sunday the number of members attending the men's class of Grace church was 120, and the men's class of the Presbyterian church 103.

A rapid increase in the attendance of both classes is predicted.

Style Leadership in the Sale of Waists

JUDGING by the ever increasing popularity of our Waist Department it's most apparent that the proud position of acknowledged leadership in the sale of Waists has quite generally been accorded us. And this distinction comes to us not undeservedly for we have in effect, with the manufacturers, unusual arrangements whereby we secure shortly after their conception and creation the very newest and most approved styles in Waists weeks in advance of their appearance in the market generally. Not only are our styles the newest and most desired, but due to these same arrangements the most extraordinary values always prevail here, and decided economies can be effected by confining your Waist purchases to this store.

Tomorrow we will place on sale four new models in the ever desirable Wirthmor Waists. As always, these waists are priced at just One Dollar. And as always they are worth much more. These Waists are sold here exclusively

THE WARNES ASSESSOR ACT REPEALED

House Passes Parrett-Whittemore Proposition.

FIVE DEMOCRATS SUPPORT IT

County Boards of Revision, Under Amendment Adopted, Are to Be Appointed at Once—Hoy Bill to Prevent Fee Splitting to Be Reconsidered—Salary Loan Agents Hit by a Cass Measure.

Columbus, March 17.—By a vote of 76 to 41 the house passed the Parrett-Whittemore bill, the administration measure, which absolutely repeals the Warnes tax assessor law and provides a permanent decentralized system of assessment under county control, to go into effect next January. Five Democrats voted for the measure, which was solidly supported by the Republicans. The Democratic votes were cast by Cowan of Putnam, Crawford of Monroe, Etling of Wayne, Quinlisk of Shelby and Stivers of Brown.

By amendment offered by the Republican floor leader, Mr. Whittemore, one part of the bill will be effective this year, for the county boards of revision, three members to be named by the prosecuting attorney, the probate judge, the president of the board of county commissioners and the county treasurer, are to be appointed at once. This means that the Warnes boards of complaints, retained in the Bettler bill providing for this year's assessing, will be taken out of that measure. The senate, committee amended the Bettler bill to have retained by appointment of the county auditor the Warnes deputy assessors, who themselves are legislated out of the bill.

The Parrett-Whittemore bill greatly circumscribes and restricts the elective ward and township assessors, which are provided for to carry out the Republican platform pledge, by making them removable by the county auditor, and a floor amendment increased their supervision by making them removable also by the state tax commission.

Other amendments limited the board of revision to one sitting, in August, gave this board the same power as the auditor to summon taxpayers, and on refusal to furnish information regarding their own or others' assessments to cite them before the probate court for contempt; made the maximum pay of assessors $6 a day instead of $8, and made the penalty for violation of the law by taxing officials $50 to $300 fine.

Kramer Attacks Bill.

Minority Leader Kramer declared that if elective assessors could get personal property on the duplicate, all right, but he warned the Republicans that unless this was done the Smith law would have to give way to the demand of the cities for revenue, while the farmers would have to accept classification of property for taxation, to be followed by imposition of the single tax.

The Hoy bill to prevent surgeons and physicians splitting fees, which was temporarily sidetracked, is to be considered again by the senate committee on medical colleges and societies. At the hearing Dr. Hoy will present an indorsement of the bill by Dr. John G. Bowman, Chicago, director of the American College of Surgeons.

Salary loan agents who have found recent laws detrimental to their business and abandoned this field of operation to take cover under the guise of building and loan associations, in which they are said to be conducting a business equally as profitable as under the time loan agency, will be routed from their hiding places if a bill introduced by Senator Cass of Putnam county becomes law. The usury statutes are to be applied under the proposed law to building and loan associations.

With a strict party vote the senate passed the Reighard bill, which abolishes the positions of the four supervisors of the teaching of agriculture. As the bill already has passed the house, it now is ready for Governor Willis to sign. Salaries of the agricultural supervisors are $2,000, with $1,000 for expenses.

Adjutant General Hough, George L. Converse, commandant of cadets at Ohio State university, and Superintendent of Public Instruction Miller soon will be at work devising a policy and plan for military instruction in the schools and universities of the state. The senate unanimously adopted the Stivers resolution making such provision.

The Bragg quail bill, providing protection for quail until 1920, probably will be voted on in the senate this week. It was reported out by the committee on fish culture and game without recommendation.

The Federalman bill, which passed the senate, provides that councilmen may draw salary for meetings they miss if two-thirds of the members vote favorably on it.

Russians Report Activity In Galicia and Poland.

WITHIN GUNSHOT OF PRZEMYSL

Political Pressure Upon the Italian Government to Pledge Italy's Future Course Believed to Have Reached Its Climax—Slight Gains Made by the French in the Western War Zone.

London, March 17.—The Russians are within rifle shot of the fortress of Przemyśl. After terrific fighting all along the 700 miles of battle front in the eastern war zone, the forces of the czar have only successes to narrate.

The official bulletin reads: “On the left of the Niemen we dislodged advance parties of the enemy from Kopowo. The offensive of our troops on both banks of the Orjiza is progressing successfully. After a very determined battle our troops captured the villages of Stegna and Jed Morozec and repulsed a vigorous counter attack. We captured some heavy guns, three light field guns, seven machine guns and at least 500 prisoners. We had partial successes also north of Przasnysz, on the Gradusk line. The enemy has been more active in bombardment of our fortifications on the Bzura and on the left of the Vistula. He attempted a fruitless offensive in the region of the Pilzta. In the Carpathians our troops continued the offensive.”

Action at the western front is largely stationary, according to the communique issued by the French war office, although slight gains are reported in the Champagne district. Near Perthes the French tried the German tactics and exploded a mine under the German trenches, subsequently occupying the crater caused by the explosion.

Italy's Position.

The political pressure upon the Italian government to pledge Italy's course in the future either to the empires of central Europe or the allies has been augmenting for some time and is believed to have about reached its climax. Following partial suppression by Italy of the mails to Austria and the conference of Emperor Francis Joseph with his minister of war concerning the defense of the Italian frontier, it is reported that the Italian fleet is being concentrated at Tarento. This is the point in Italy nearest the Dardanelles.

According to thoroughly reliable sources, Prince Von Buelow, the German ambassador, has given formal assurances that Germany will be able in the end to overcome the resistance of Austria and induce Vienna to concede to Italy the territorial concessions demanded, together with a free hand in southern Albania.

Representatives of the allies in their negotiations with the Italian government have presented the matter in quite a different light. They have united in saying that the defeat of Germany and Austria-Hungary was inevitable, even without the participation of Italy. In case Italy refrained from taking part, she would receive nothing from the allies when the settlements are made.

GERMANS TREAT JAPS ROUGHLY

Washington, March 17.—Further representations may be made to Germany by the United States relative to the treatment accorded Japanese residents of Germany since Japan took the side of the allies in the war. Baron Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, had a conference with Secretary Bryan and the subject of Germany's treatment of Japanese was under discussion. It has been pointed out by Baron Chinda that immediately upon the declaration of war by Japanese the Japanese within the domains of the kaiser were thrown into prison and are still in custody. This treatment was accorded to all Japanese, without regard to class. On the other hand, so Baron Chinda informed the state department, Germans and Austrians in Japan engaged in civil pursuits have been permitted to go their own way without restraint.

THEY ALL MARRY COUSINS.

Curious Custom of Some Native Tribes of Southern India.

In some parts of southern India the natives have a custom of marriage between cousins which is a result of a strange compromise between two opposite rules of succession. The natives are Dravidians, who have come under Brahmanical influence. Among the Dravidians the mother was the head of the family and all descent and inheritance came through her. The Brahmanical rule of succession is through the father.

According to E. J. Richards, writing in "Man," the matrilinear community, while being unwilling to give up its traditional custom, saw the advantage of insuring to children the benefit of the natural desire of the father—the worker and provider—to provide for his offspring. Therefore they adopted the custom of a man marrying the daughter of his mother's brother, of his father's sister or of his own sister.

In this way a community in which all property is inherited through the mother conforms to the patrilinear system and so keeps the property in the family, this, according to Mr. Richards, being the economical reason for the strange custom.

PRESBYTERIAN CLASS IS ON THE BOOM

There were over one hundred men in the Bible Class of the Presbyterian church last Sunday, and the interest and enthusiasm was remarkable. The men are "working and praying," and great results are sure to follow from this combination.

No little credit is due and given to the "Go to Church" appeals now being run in the Daily Herald. Keep up the good work.

The class won a stereopticon which was promised by a philanthropic citizen of our city, if the attendance, reached 100 men. Another prominent man now promises a fine lot of slides if the attendance reaches 150 which will no doubt be done next Sunday morning. Help us win it.

D. L. Thompson will deliver the lecture next Sunday, and negotiations have been begun to have Congressman Fess to address the class in the near future. 150 next Sunday. CLASS SEC'Y.

MANY VISIT SCENE OF LONELY GRAVE

During the past few days a large number of persons have visited the place on the Dore farm, east of this city, where Hoggy Bainter's remains were concealed for three months, presumably by his alleged murderers. The excavation in the little stable has attracted much attention, and persons from a radius of many miles have flocked to the spot to get a peep at the grave and the surroundings. It is stated that the little apple orchard in which the grave and barn are located, is shunned after nightfall, for obvious reasons.
